POLICY

It is the policy of the Agapé Hospice that the use of computers and the Internet is a privilege, not a right.

PROCEDURE

1. Individual users of the computers and the Internet are responsible for their behavior and communications over those computers and the Internet.
2. Users will comply with The Salvation Army Standards and will honor the "Computers and the Internet Moral and Ethical Use Policy" as attached as 0941b by signing it. Normally at the time of Orientation for Agapé Hospice staff, before technology use privileges will be granted.
3. Inappropriate use will result in cancellation of privileges and potentially, other disciplinary action up to and including termination.
