POLICY

Agape Hospice is able to provide comfortable spaces for families and residents to relax and also have a private space in which to grieve. The Jolin Family Room is a large space situated in close proximity to many resident rooms and has been designed for the above purpose. This room should be available for families as needed for grieving at any time of the day or night. The Jolin Family Room is also used for weekly Interdisciplinary Team Rounds.

PROCEDURE

1. The Jolin Family Room should be available to family members at all times of the day.
2. In extenuating circumstances, if this room is used for sleeping by a resident's family, they must be informed that they may have to vacate at any hour if the room is needed by another family.
